Carolyn Williams, by and through counsel Krista Hart, and Leonard Williams, by and through counsel Robert Holley, along with the United States of America (government) by and through counsel Assistant U.S. Attorney Kenneth Melikian, and the pretrial services officer, Gina Faubion, hereby stipulate and agree that the condition of third-party custodianship as to both defendants be deleted as a condition to pretrial release.

Mr. and Ms. Williams were released from custody in April, 2005; Mr. Williams was released on the 6th with a condition that his father, Leonard Williams, Sr., serve as a third-party custodian. Ms. Williams was released on the 12th with a similar condition. On April 16, 2005, the third party custodianship was transferred to Michael Nunnery. Since that time, Mr. Nunnery has served as the third-party custodian for both clients.

Mr. and Ms. Williams have been doing very well on their pretrial release. They have met with and reported to their pretrial services officer, Gina Faubion, on a regular basis. Ms. Faubion is satisfied with their performance. Therefore, Ms. Faubion and all counsel are in agreement that the third-party custodianship condition of pretrial release should be dropped with all other conditions remaining in tact.
